

Women Across Differences Placement Description

WAD is looking for two people to fill this placement. This is an unpaid position, however we would be happy to provide a reference, or provide an internship position to support students.

Position Title: Literacy Trainer

Purpose: The trainer will be working with young mothers from the “Comprehensive Empowerment Programme for Adolescent Mothers”. Prior to joining WAD some participants had dropped out of school; as a result of this some participants have low levels of basic literacy. The role of the trainer will be to facilitate workshops on basic literacy training.

Key Responsibilities: Conduct workshops on grammar, basic math literacy, writing etc.

Time Commitment: 1 half day per week

Skills Needed: Background in education or a combination of relevant education and experience.

If you are interested in these positions please indicate on your application form or call the WAD office at 227-3974.
